Hunterdon County Freeholders Take Board Meeting
To Clinton Township, June 18th at 5:30pm

The Hunterdon County Board of Chosen Freeholders will be ‘on the road again,’ holding its June 18, 2019 regular meeting at 5:30 pm, at the Clinton Township Public Safety Building, 3rd floor, at 1370 Route 31 North, in Annandale.

The meeting will be the tenth time since 2014 that the Freeholders have moved their regular meeting out of the Flemington Administration Building to a local setting.

Freeholder Board Director Suzanne Lagay said, “Our experience is that holding meetings in our various municipalities is well received by the public. We believe it opens up the County government to the public more. Normally, we have seen a good turnout of residents for these meetings.”

Hunterdon County Department Heads will also be in available at the meeting to discuss issues and concerns with the public.

The Freeholders have been on the road with meetings in Hampton Borough, Lambertville, Tewksbury, Raritan, Frenchtown, Delaware, East Amwell, and Holland Township twice, beginning in September 2014.
