FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 30, 2023

WARREN COUNTY MAN CHARGED WITH SEXUALLY ASSAULTING A CHILD IN HUNTERDON COUNTY

Hunterdon County Prosecutor Renée M. Robeson announced today that an investigation by the Hunterdon County Prosecutor's Office's Special Victims Unit has led to the arrest of an individual on March 30, 2023.

Jared Green, 35, of Pohatcong Township, Warren County, was charged with five counts of first-degree aggravated sexual assault, three counts of second-degree sexual assault, four counts of second-degree endangering the welfare of a child, and two counts of third-degree criminal sexual contact. The crimes occurred in Raritan Township, East Amwell Township, Alexandria Township, and Glen Gardner Township from 2011 to 2018. Mr. Green, a Hunterdon County Corrections Officer, is currently suspended without pay. The Hunterdon County Sheriff's Office continues to cooperate fully with the investigation. The allegations did not arise in connection with Mr. Green's employment. Mr. Green is lodged in the Morris County Jail pending his first court appearance.

First-degree charges may result in criminal penalties including, but not limited to, a term of imprisonment between ten and twenty years and a fine not to exceed $200,000.00. Second-degree charges may result in criminal penalties including, but not limited to, a term of imprisonment between five and ten years and a fine not to exceed $150,000.00.

Despite having been charged, every defendant is presumed innocent until found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
