Deputy Director Kuhl Honors United Way Member With “Volunteer of the Year” Award

On Wednesday, June 28th, Deputy Director Commissioner, Jeff Kuhl attended the Hunterdon County United Way Volunteer Appreciation reception, where he awarded a proclamation from the Board of County Commissioners, recognizing Kendra Schroeder, as the 2023 “Volunteer of the Year”.

The United Way of Hunterdon County is a community-based program centered on bringing people and resources together to improve lives and conditions to advance the common good of the community. The United Way is centered on volunteerism, leadership and philanthropy that envisions a community where all individuals and families achieve their full potential through income stability, healthy lives, and education.

Deputy Director Kuhl shared, “I am proud to present Kendra Schroeder with the ‘Volunteer of the Year’ award, for her outstanding contributions to the United Way cause. This award is presented to a member of United Way who has given 10 years of volunteer service, both as an ambassador and member of a committee board. The Board extends their gratitude and offers sincere congratulations to Kendra for her commitment and contributions as a United Way volunteer.”

The United Way of Hunterdon County has been supporting the community for more than 30 years to help residents thrive. The mission focus of United Way is centered on the acronym ALICE, helping people who are Asset Limited, Income Constrained and Employed (or retired). This is achieved through poverty prevention programs, advocacy, and collaborative efforts across the county.

To achieve its mission, United Way is indebted to its volunteers for their passion and commitment to reaching the goals as set forth. If you are interested in volunteering with the United Way of Hunterdon County visit, www.uwhunterdon.org/our-programs
