Hunterdon County Library Hosting Saturday Winter Concert Series

The Hunterdon County Library kicks off its Saturday Winter Concert Series with a performance by Ed & Tom of Coo Coo Cachoo on Saturday, January 21st from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM at the North County Branch in the Main Meeting Room. Ed & Tom will perform from their wide-ranging repertoire of classic rock, pop, folk and country tunes, mostly from the 60s-80s.

Additional Saturday performances include Colonial Drinking Songs with the Enslows on February 4th, Jamie & Nancy DeJesus on February 18th, and Na'Bodach Returns on March 11th. Each of these concerts will be held at the North County Branch in the Main Meeting Room and start at 2:00 PM and last approximately an hour in length. Pre-registration is required for each concert event.

Deputy Director of the Commissioner Board Jeff Kuhl, who serves as liaison to the Library noted, "The Winter Concert Series is free to the public and a great way to enjoy a Saturday afternoon listening to renowned musical artists."

Library Director James Keebler noted, "Registration for the concert series fills quickly, and I would encourage residents to visit the Hunterdon County Library website soon to reserve their seat. The upcoming musical performances are just one of the many different programs offered by the Hunterdon County Library to the public. I would also like to thank the Friends of the Hunterdon County Library (FOHCL) for their support for this series."
