Hunterdon County's Virtual Veteran's Recognition Medal Ceremony On November 11th at 2pm

Livestreamed From The Historic Courthouse

Hunterdon County's virtual Veteran's Recognition Medal Ceremony will be livestreamed from the Historic Courthouse on November 11th at 2pm featuring guest speaker Dr. Joseph Milligan, a former Union Township resident, U.S. Air Force fighter pilot and Prisoner of War (POW) during Vietnam. The Veteran, after his release, received a doctorate in veterinary medicine from Cornell University in 1979.

The county's ceremony will feature a slideshow presentation honoring each Veteran who applied for the Recognition medal and a pre-recorded video with comments from Dr. Milligan. Dr. Milligan will remark on his experiences over his twenty-four-year military career, as a POW, and what Veterans Day means to him.

The ceremony will be livestreamed via Facebook and the county's website starting at 2 pm on Thursday, November 11th.
