Hunterdon County Board of Commissioners Director Susan J. Soloway statement on PennEast Pipeline's decision to halt the project:

"Hunterdon County's Commissioners, our local officials, and our residents whose properties were threatened by eminent domain all welcome PennEast's decision to halt the project.

Over fifty Hunterdon County farmland easements, paid for by the taxpayers, were under threat of being taken for the pipeline project, a move the County Board has opposed for many years.

PennEast made the right decision for Hunterdon County farms and other property owners and to protect preserved farmland."
