Hunterdon Sheriff Fred W. Brown Announces Annual County September 11th Remembrance Ceremony

On Sunday, September 11th at 8:30 AM at the Historic Courthouse steps, on Main Street in Flemington, Hunterdon County Sheriff Fred W. Brown will host the County's annual Remembrance Ceremony.

The event will pay tribute to the nearly 3,000 lives lost at the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and United Airlines Flight 93, including close to 400 first responders and law enforcement officers.

The county's theme this year, 'We don't forget, and no one is forgotten,' applies to all the lives that were lost, particularly the sixteen Hunterdon County residents who died in the towers that tragic day.

Sheriff Brown has invited all Hunterdon County first responders and law enforcement officers, Veterans and the public to the Sunday morning ceremony.

The ceremony starts at 8:30 AM sharp and if there is inclement weather, the ceremony will move inside the Courthouse.
